1. The subject of the reference reports is becoming completely fed up with life in Colombia. He says that he has no interest in his present work, and that unless he hears something soon from friends in the United States he may go to Europe, probably Paris or Rome. He has hinted various times that he would be interested in any propositions which might be offered.
2. [] has no idea whether Headquarters has any desire to make use of the subject, but is forwarding this information as of possible value. The subject has had wide experience in the fields of news and propaganda. He also is intimately acquainted with many persons of his nationality, not only exiles but those in high positions within the country. In the event that any additional information is desired regarding the subject or his interests, we shall be glad to furnish this. He is not being used in any capacity []
